Bookwood Wins the Chicago Derby.

Dundee Was Second, and Nero, the California Favorite, Third.

Ten Thousand People Present in Spite of Clouds and Showers.

Events at Louisville and Gravesend—Valera Captures the Race—Inter Handicap on the Former Track.

By Telegram to The Times.

CHICAGO, May 20.—[By the Associated Press.] The new track of the Chicago Racing Association was opened today. It is located at Thirty-fifth and West Forty-eighth streets. The track, as most new tracks are, was springy and somewhat slow. In spite of cloudy and somewhat threatening weather there was a large attendance, about ten thousand people being present.

The feature of the day's sport was the third race, the Chicago Derby, for 3-year-olds; $10 entrance, $50 to start, with $2,500 added; mile and a quarter. The starters were: Nero, Silverado, Dundee, Brookwood. Nero was the favorite, and piles of money were lost on him.

The horses were sent away on even terms. Silverado jumped to the front, and at the stand was leading Nero two lengths, with Brookwood last. On the turn Nero made a spurt and when the back stretch was reached had taken the lead from Silverado by half a length, the others being two lengths away. In the last turn Kiley let loose on Brookwood and took second place from Silverado and kept on forging ahead. A sixteenth from the wire Brookwood had got ahead and came in strong, winning easily by two lengths. Dundee made up a great deal of ground at the last and beat Nero for place. Silverado was two lengths behind Nero. Time 2:17.

The other races were: Three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs—Outlook won, Heller Skates second, Bob Jacobs third. Time, 1:17. Two-year-olds, five-eighths of a mile—Jim Murphy won, Jay Jay second, Tom Paxton third. Time, 1:04. Mile—Justice won, Burch second, Experience third. Time, 1:04. Mile and an eighth all ages—Hocksey won, Blue Vail second, Soureine third. Time, 1:04.

Racing at Louisville. LOUISVILLE, May 20.—The racing today was in a sea of mud, and the last two events in a pouring rain. Mile and seventy yards—L. H. won, Edith 1 second, J. T. third. Time, 1:55. Two-year-olds, half mile—Morrissey won, Falcro second, Annonce third. Time, 0:54. Rascally handicap, mile and an eighth—Vallera won, Hamlet second, Sir Abner third. Time, 2:02.

Events at Gravesend. GRAVESEND, May 20.—Six furlongs—Correction won, La Toca second, Boro third. Time, 1:15. Mile and three-sixteenths—Longstreet won, Ron second, B. B. Million third. Time, 2:05. Five-eighths of a mile—Victory won, Othmar second, Emmita third. Time, 1:04.

Mile and an eighth, Gasella Stakes, 2-year-old fillies—Ambulance won, Beckon second, Orange third. Time, 1:59. Five-eighths of a mile—Rex won, Verbera second, Turk third. Time, 1:04. Mile and a sixteenth—Flavia won, Virgil second, Galiffet third. Time, 1:51.

PITTSBURGH, May 20.—Lucky hitting won today's game. Score: Pittsburgh, 8; Brooklyn, 6. CLEVELAND, May 20.—It was a great game today. McAleer, Virtue, Childs and Getz made wonderful displays in the field, and everybody hit the ball. Score: Cleveland 16, Boston 13.

THE BREWERS.

Annual Convention of Their Association at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND (O.), May 20.—[By the Associated Press.] The thirty-first annual convention of the United States Brewers Association opened here today. President Lauffen, in his address said:

The past year has been very profitable for brewers. Legislation as a whole has been favorable to us, while the recent elections have been victorious for the cause represented by me. I would advise a continuance of our present policy in dealing with the prohibition question. This includes the sustaining of an educational bureau. This will, to a certain extent, prevent hypocrisy and violation of laws. It is proposed to erect a building for a brewer's exhibit at the World's Fair at a cost of $100,000 and I recommend full discussion of the subject. After listening to the reports an adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Young Heart's New Yacht.

New York, May 20.—There is just being completed at the yards of the Herreshoff Manufacturing Company of Bristol, R. I., what will be one of the most palatial yachts afloat. It is the property of W. R. Hearst, son of the late Senator Hearst of California. It is expected she will be ready to slide off the ways in about ten days. The launching will be an important event. A big crowd of people will witness the ceremony. If the yacht comes up to contract stipulations Hearst will take her to the Pacific Coast.

THE TRANSMISSISSIPPIANS.

A Variety of Resolutions Presented at the Congress.

DENVER (Colo.), May 20.—[By the Associated Press.] After a warm contest this morning, Ferry of Utah was selected chairman of the Transmississippi Congress. The majority of the Committee on Permanent Organization recommended for chairman ex-Gov. Anthony of Kansas. The minority stated that the convention must have a free coinage man for chairman, and as Anthony was opposed to this they recommended Ferry. After considerable debate and much excitement Ferry was chosen.

At the afternoon session, Iowa offered a resolution favoring the immediate construction of the Hennepin canal. A Louisiana delegate proposed a resolution favoring Mississippi River improvements and a man from Missouri moved the appropriation of $3,000,000 annually for that purpose. Colorado delegates presented a resolution favoring a deep water harbor at Galveston.

A Texas Hallstorm.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—Additional particulars of the terrific hailstorm near Galveston, Tex., are to the effect that the section damaged is about fifty miles in length and from two to five miles wide. Farmers lost their entire possessions. Crops were destroyed and houses, fences and orchards were laid waste by the wind. Birds and small animals were killed by thousands by the hailstorm, but no person is reported hurt.

THE CHILEAN WAR.

CRUISERS CHASING AN INSURGENT WARSHIP.

A Skirmish Between the Almirante Lynch and the Huascar—The Rebel Vessel Makes Her Escape.

By Telegram to The Times.

LIQUIQUE (Chile), May 20.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] On Sunday morning about 4:30 o'clock the Chilean insurgent torpedo cruiser Almirante Lynch was sighted off Punta de Piedra by the Chilean warship Almirante Cochrane, which immediately gave chase, but was soon left far behind by the faster-sailing torpedo vessel. The Almirante Lynch steamed away in a northerly direction and was never within range of the ironclad's gun. In the meantime the authorities telegraphed Pisagua, where the Huascar and Magallanes were anchored, and started to cut off the Almirante Lynch and sighted her off Junin. The Huascar, when it was thought she was in the range of the cruiser, fired some light shots, which were returned by the enemy. The Almirante Lynch, however, gradually got away from the Huascar, apparently without damage.

Great excitement prevailed yesterday evening when the Imperial was seen off Cavancha, about ten miles from the coast. She began firing rapidly as if fighting desperately, but no enemy was in sight. The Cochrane and Huascar went out at full speed, but the Imperial soon disappeared. While the launch from the Cochrane was fixing torpedoes for defense in case of an attack, a torpedo exploded. One man was drowned and several injured. Boats from the San Francisco rescued two men.

FAIR, May 20.—A dispatch received here from Chile says Admiral La Torre, President Balmaceda's commissioner, resigned, owing to the fact that he is in sympathy with the Congressional party.

LOSTON, May 20.—The Times's Lisbon dispatch says President Balmaceda ruptured the mediation negotiations because he hoped to borrow money from Germany and succeed in procuring cannon from England for the cruiser President Pinto.

FOREIGN NOTES.

An Influx of Destitute Hebrews into Great Britain.

LONDON, May 20.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] England is becoming alarmed at the exodus of destitute Hebrews from Russia, as large numbers of them are seeking refuge in Great Britain. This movement has assumed such proportions that it is termed the "Hebrew invasion of England." It is estimated about five hundred appeals made each week to the newspapers by individuals urging the authorities to introduce legislation to exclude the destitute aliens similar to the immigration law recently adopted by the United States.

REVOLUTIONARY STORIES DENIED.

LONDON, May 20.—A dispatch received here from Lisbon at noon today does not mention that any disorders have taken place in that city. The report circulated in the United States that a revolution had broken out in Portugal is not confirmed.

THE FUGITIVE ITATA.

The Pursuit is Not to Be Abandoned.

A False Report Promptly Contradicted by Secretary Tracy.

The Esmeralda Practically a Prisoner for Lack of Coal.

Admiral Brown Ordered to Demand the Surrender of the Itata if She Arrives in Chile.

By Telegram to The Times.

PARIS, May 20.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Delegates from the Congressional, or Insurgent, party of Chile, who are now in this city, say that acting upon instructions, they presented a note to Reid, United States minister here, asking him to communicate with his Government and ask the United States officials to countermand the instructions sent to Capt. Remy of the cruiser Charleston in regard to the pursuit of the Itata, and Reid communicated the request of the delegates to his Government, with the result that the United States officials acceded to it.

SECRETARY TRACY DENIES IT.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—There is no word yet from the Charleston or Itata. Secretary Tracy says there is no truth in the report from Paris that the insurgent envoys have induced the United States Government to discontinue pursuit of the steamer. "For some time past," said Tracy, "the governments of France and Brazil have been co-operating with the Government of the United States to secure the restoration of peace in Chile. Therefore it should be made apparent to the United States Government, through the suggestions of the French government or otherwise, that the object for which the three great republics are now striving, the restoration of peace in Chile, can be brought within reach by relaxing the pursuit of the Itata, it may be that this country has adopted especially as it can now be asserted that the United States has used 'due diligence' in efforts to preserve an honorable neutrality."

Señor Mendonza, Brazilian minister, was asked tonight if he had any official information concerning mediation by the governments of Brazil, France and the United States, with a view of restoration of peace between the conflicting factions in Chile. He replied that he had only to his official information on the subject. The only intelligence he had received was that contained in the newspapers.

SURRENDER TO BE DEMANDED.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—A Washington special to the Evening Post says the United States Government has instructed Admiral Brown to demand the immediate surrender of the Itata when she arrives at any of the ports of Chile in the hands of the insurgents. The Mexican government has refused to allow the commander of the Esmeralda at Acapulco to use the telegraph lines at that point, so that the Esmeralda is held there practically a prisoner. She has no coal and cannot get any, and is also unable to get communication with the insurgents in Chile. The feeling against Mexico among the Chilean insurgents is very bitter and the Esmeralda would be a great asset to the insurgents if they could get it.

POSSIBLE BUT NOT PROBABLE.

HAMBURG, May 20.—The Boersenhalle, a political and commercial newspaper of this city, says today: The Itata incident has been arranged with the American admiral at Liquique.

NATALIE'S EXPULSION.

The Episode Causes Great Excitement at Belgrade.

BELGRADE, May 20.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The garrison of Belgrade is being hurriedly reinforced for fear of possible troubles, arising from the expulsion of Natalie. The minister's position is shaken. Twelve persons wounded on Monday have since died. It is stated that the government has spread a rumor that the expulsion of Natalie was abandoned on Monday in order to facilitate her removal.

BUDA PEST, May 20.—Dispatches from Semlin, Hungary, where Queen Natalie stopped yesterday, say that great crowds of people gathered in the streets adjacent to the hotel at which she is stopping, awaiting an opportunity to see her. Many leading ladies of the fashionable circles of Semlin visited Queen Natalie at night, and welcomed her to Hungary.

Death of a Ball Player.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—James G. Fogarty, the well-known ball player, died today of consumption, aged 26 years. His home was in Los Angeles.

Chicago Stockyards Squabble.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The Union Stockyards Company this evening filed a lengthy answer to the suits brought by Armour, Swift and Morris to compel the company to allow them access to their new yards with their live stock over its tracks, etc. The answer in substance sets forth that the tracks in question are used exclusively for dead freight and the great volume of business the complainants forced on them would blockade defendant's business. It is added that there is no law compelling defendant to turn over the use of its tracks for the benefit of other stockyards.

AMONG THE BRUISERS.

CORBETT AND JACKSON TO MEET TONIGHT.

Both Men in the Pink of Condition—The Myer-Bowen Fight at New Orleans Declared a Draw.

By Telegram to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—[By the Associated Press.] Jim Corbett and Peter Jackson rested from their training today, and tomorrow evening the greatest heavyweight contest ever seen here will occur at the gymnasium of the California Athletic Club. Both pugilists have been visited at their training quarters by a great number of sporting men and a most critical examination has failed to reveal any fault in the physical condition of either. So far as can be learned from the contestants themselves each is perfectly satisfied that if he loses it will be because the other is the better man. Corbett's present weight is 187 pounds, and he looks the embodiment of vigorous manhood and cheerfulness. He ran and walked twelve miles Tuesday, and in addition punched a bag and sparred with his trainer. Jackson punched the bag for the last time Tuesday night, fogging it for spells of twenty minutes. He was then rubbed down and weighed, and turned the scales at 197 pounds. Betting has been spirited during the last twenty-four hours. Great crowds gathered in the poolrooms tonight, and a large amount of money was wagered, the usual odds being 100 to 65, with Jackson the favorite.

DECLARED A DRAW.

Decision in the Myer-Bowen Fight at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—Referee Brewer decided the Bower-Myer fight a draw on fouls. The purse was divided equally. All bets were declared off. There is much comment on the decision. Under the rules as generally understood, when one man fouls another he loses the fight without reserve. The referee decided that Myer fouled Bowen, and in fact the foul was so palpable that almost everyone of the spectators saw it. Opponents of the decision argue that hereafter under such a ruling, when a fighter finds he is whipped he has only to foul his opponent to get one-half the purse, and enable his friends to get back any money wagered on him.

How Old Is Punch?

On landing at one of the sugar factories we found that there was a fair going on under an avenue of tamarisks close by. The dealers sat under the trees with their wares before them, fruit and vegetables in one quarter, cotton and calicoes in another, native woolen stuffs, robes, rugs, cloth, etc., in a third; there was also a cattle fair, sheep, buffaloes, camels and donkeys. There were at fresco stalls and a booth, within which the sounds of very noisy music could be heard, the drum predominating. We entered, and were much amused at finding that it was an Arab Punch and Judy show, but Punch wore a turban and Judy a yashmak.

The former perpetrated a series of enormities, and ended by tearing off Judy's veil during a family squabble; after this he became a perfect desperado, and on the main street of the district, got up in the official tarboosh and blue frock coat, arriving at a point by a retinue of cavaliers armed with sticks, he knocked that redoubtable personage head over heels, amid the vociferous applause of the assembled fallen. Punch pasha's popularity was now at its height, and much sympathy was felt for him when his career terminated by his being hanged on the pole of a shadow. It was really a very clever and lively performance.

I turned to the inspector of the factory, who was with me, and said, "I suppose you have borrowed this from Europe." "Borrowed it from Europe?" he exclaimed. "Why, it was performed in the east before Europe was thought of." So then old Punch is, after all, but a degenerate version of an Egyptian play—Stuart's "Egypt After the War."

A Sure Way of Killing Owls.

Frost (Bunker) of the Dead river region, is a guide who, it is said, is a successful rival to James A. Smith, of Phillips—a Bangly guide—in story telling. Frost is intimately acquainted with "John Smith," who is well known in all parts of the country. He says he was with John on a hunting trip once on a time, when they came upon a man who had fired at an owl perched in a big tree about a dozen times without success. As they approached the stranger offered John a five dollar bill if he would secure the owl. John cocked his rifle and walked around the tree.

The owl turned his head in the same direction as far as John walked. John kept on going around the tree, the owl turning his head all the while. Just as John completed the tenth circuit the owl's head was twisted off and he fell to the ground dead. John said small owls couldn't be killed that way because their feet would fly up in turning.—Phillips (Mo.) Phonograph.

A Spider's Rapid Work.

When the common geometrical spider has made up its mind to spin a web, it commences operations by inclosing a certain area with the foundation lines. To these radiating lines are fixed, generally about thirty in number, and all joining in the center of the web, but, however, the first few concentric threads are without this peculiarity, the reason being that the spider likes to sometimes sit in the middle of its web, and naturally does not care to be incommoded with the sticky matter which it prepares for the special benefit of its prey.

When the snare is finished, a task which often does not occupy more than forty minutes in spite of the complicated nature of the work, the spider weaves a cell in some secluded spot close at hand, connecting it with the center of the web by means of a special thread. This, by its trembling, gives intimation of the capture of any insect in the web, and also forms a pathway by which the snugly ensconced spider is enabled to proceed on an investigating expedition. —Cornhill Magazine.

The Sense of Smell.

The eye is used only for seeing, and the ear for hearing, but the nose is one of the organs that serve a double purpose. It is not only the seat of the sense of smell, but was intended to be the principal organ through which man should breathe. Its circuitous passages, warm and moist, protect the lungs by taking the chill from the inspired air and arresting irritating dust.

The whole nose is not concerned in the act of smelling. The olfactory nerves, which alone take cognizance of odors, are situated in the upper third of the nasal chambers, out of the line of ordinary inhalation. For this reason we do not usually notice odors unless they are somewhat strong; but when we sniff—draw the air into the upper part of the nostrils and hold it there for a few moments—we become aware of the faintest scent.—Youth's Companion.

France's Executive.

The president of France is chosen by a majority vote of both branches of parliament sitting together as a joint assembly, and his term is seven years. Usually, however, he is compelled to step down from office by pressure from parliament before his term ends. The constitution gives him the authority to select a ministry, which must comprise members of parliament; to conclude treaties with foreign nations, to appoint to the chief military and civil posts, to pardon offenders, and in concurrence with the senate to dissolve the chamber of deputies and bring about a new election. These are the chief powers of the president. The present executive—Carnot—was elected on Dec. 3, 1887.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Not a Bad Idea.

"Remember, boys," said the teacher, who being still new to the business, knew not what else to say to make an impression, "that in the bright lexicon of youth there's no such word as fail." After a few moments a boy from Boston raised his hand. "Well, what is it, Socrates?" asked the teacher.

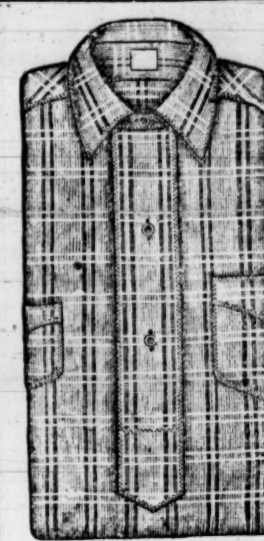

"I was merely going to suggest," replied the youngster as he cleaned his spectacles with his handkerchief, "that if such is the case, it would be advisable to write to the publishers of that lexicon and call their attention to the omission." —Montreal Star.

A Kansas Ghost Story.

The Atchison Globe says the man in that town who had a strange experience recently with his deceased wife's empty chair, which rocked in a strange manner, is having another experience that is still more remarkable. Wherever he goes of late he hears a soft footfall keeping step beside him. Every step he takes he hears that mysterious step joining in with his own. Walking in the snow the other morning, side by side with his own footprints there appeared the prints of a woman's feet. He is sure that the ghost of his wife is shadowing him, and that for some reason it distrusts him. He is much worried about it.

They Died as They Desired.

A singular incident is related of two Georgia brothers who were devotedly attached to each other, and who had often expressed the desire that they might die together. Recently at Gainesville, Walter Wood, in attempting to cross the Tombigbee river in a skiff, was drowned by his boat capsizing. On the same day and about the same time his brother, Julian Wood, who was working in a glass furnace near Birmingham, was overcome by gas and died in a few minutes.

RECOMMENDATIONS

—GIVEN TO—
DR. WOH,
The Celebrated Chinese Physician.

For many years I have been troubled with lung disease, which finally ended in asthma and consumption. I consulted with the best physicians I could find but they did me no benefit, but on the contrary I grew worse and worse until I was told by one of them I could not recover. Dr. Woh took me in this condition. He has in two months time entirely cured me. I most cordially recommend him to all sufferers. 325 Boyd St., Los Angeles, Cal. May 1st, 1891.

For eight months past my wife was a great sufferer from female troubles. For days at a time her pain was so severe that no rest could be obtained or sleep at night. Unwillingly I forced her to visit Dr. Woh, the Chinese physician. The doctor undertook to cure her and now with grateful heart we confess to a complete recovery in her case. J. F. BURDICK, 231 Court St., Los Angeles, Cal. April 3d, 1891.

I have tried many doctors for heart disease but have derived no benefit until Dr. Woh, the Chinese physician, of Los Angeles, Cal., prescribed for me. Two months ago I began his treatment and can now certify that he has done me great good. I recommend Dr. Woh to my friends as an able doctor. P. E. KING, Justice of the Peace, Los Angeles, Cal. May 4th, 1891.

The remedies are purely herbs and roots which Dr. Woh has familiarized himself thoroughly with by a long practice in the Imperial hospital of China. Dr. Woh is the oldest and best-known Chinese physician in Southern California, and his cures have been remarkable, especially in female troubles, tumors, etc. All diseases are located by and through the pulse. Free consultation to every one and all are cordially invited to call upon Dr. Woh at his office.

EVANS-VIAL.

A Pretty Wedding at All Saints' Church.

FOLLOWED BY A BREAKFAST

Something About a Trip to the Yosemite—Memorial Day Celebration—Notes and Comment.

Mr. Robert Blackwell Evans of Oshkosh, Wis., and Miss Mabel Sallie Vial, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Vial, were united in marriage at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Rev. Dr. Trew of San Gabriel officiating.

A number of invited guests were assembled at the church when the bride party entered promptly at the hour named, to the strains of the "Lohengrin Wedding March," played by Mr. Losse. The bride, advanced by the bridesmaid, Miss Edna Leland of Santa Barbara. The bride wore a most becoming dress of gray cloth, and apple-green velvet, trimmed with black tulle, and shot with gold, with hat to match, and green gloves. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. Miss Leland was attired in a charming suit of mauve cloth and velvet, trimmed with fringe, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

At the altar the bride was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Fred Vial, brother of the bride. The beautiful service of the Episcopal church was impressively performed by Dr. Trew, and at its conclusion the party left the church to the glad strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

They were immediately driven to the home of the bride's parents on North Moline avenue, where a wedding breakfast was served at 11 o'clock. The house was beautifully trimmed with a profusion of gold of Ophir and La Marque roses and daisies, and the dining table was strewn with delicately tinted roses. After congratulations and an inspection of the presents, which were both numerous and costly, the breakfast was served, the following relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties being present: Dr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dodworth, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mills, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Bradley, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas, Dean Trew, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Miss Leland, Miss Coates and Mrs. Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans took an afternoon train for Los Angeles, en route for San Francisco. They will make their residence in Oshkosh, where they will be "at home" after June 1. The bride has made many friends during her comparatively short residence in Pasadena, by reason of her many accomplishments, her general social qualifications and her bright and kindly disposition. Her departure will be much regretted. Mr. Evans is assistant cashier of one of the leading banks of Oshkosh, and is a gentleman whose business qualifications suggest a successful future. His many friends in Oshkosh have a warm welcome in waiting for him and his bride upon their arrival there.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Athletic Club should be well represented at the field sports in Los Angeles next week. There is good material in the club, and what is needed is systematic training and experience. Every man who enters an event need not expect to win, but even if he shows up last he will gain much valuable experience. He will see what his weak points are and he will absorb some useful hints from his competitors. Such members of the local club as think themselves specially capable to excel in some particular branch of athletics now have an opportunity to see what they are capable of doing. By all means let the entries be numerous. A dark horse often proves the winner.

The Pennsylvanians in Pasadena will have an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and discuss familiar scenes at Redondo on Saturday.

The weather-wise predict that the rain that set in yesterday afternoon is the forerunner of clear skies and balmy sunshine.

Memorial day will be celebrated here this year in much the same manner as last. This is an occasion that ought to bring to the surface all the patriotism there is in a man.

Mr. Wright, who has just returned from Chicago, and who was there immediately associated with H. J. Hanchette, counts the theory that the missing man is insane. He thinks he has made an unexpected trip somewhere, that his messages have failed to reach their destination, and that he will turn up all right.

Has the Driving Park Association ceased to exist?

THE YOSEMITE.

Points About a Trip to the Far-famed Valley.

Mrs. Bangs is back from a three weeks' trip to San Francisco and the Yosemite. In narrating the incidents of her trip to the Yosemite, she gave some information that will prove valuable and interesting to such Pasadenaans as contemplate touring thither.

Leaving Los Angeles on the afternoon north-bound train, the passenger arrives at the station where a change is made for Raymond, at about 4 o'clock the next morning. There is a wait of two hours and then a ninety-minute ride to Raymond. Here breakfast is taken at a cost of $1 per caput. A stage drawn by four horses is then boarded, and all that day the tourists are rattled at a lively pace in the direction of the valley, where the Yosemite is reached. It costs $4 a day to live at the Stoneman, but the accommodations are good. The chief attractions of the valley can be viewed in two days, but a week would not hang heavy among scenes of such marvelous grandeur.

Mrs. Bangs is enthusiastic over the trip, but advises no one to undertake it who does not possess a vigorous constitution, as the stage drives are long and tiresome.

Memorial Day.

The committee appointed from John F. Godfrey Post, G. A. R., to make arrangements for celebrating Memorial day, met at Mr. McDonald's office Tuesday evening. It was decided to hold services in the Methodist Tabernacle in the morning, on which occasion Judge Waldo M. York of this place will deliver the principal address. SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, May 20.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] An Odd Fellow lodge, composed of an Odd Fellow, a lodge, and a lodge, yesterday afternoon by District Deputy Grand Master James Ashman, assisted by Past Grand Master Burr, Sheriff Gibson and others. The organization will hereafter be known as Seaside Lodge, No. 269, I. O. O. F. The following officers were elected for the first term: Noble grand, William B. Willis; vice grand, M. D. Feather; secretary, J. S. Wilson; financial secretary, Stephen Carpenter; treasurer, L. A. Willis.

In the evening another meeting was held in Seaside's Odd Fellows hall, which twenty-four new members were initiated, twenty-three of them taking the three degrees. About forty brethren from Los Angeles, Compton and other points were present to participate in the exercises. At midnight the entire party had a fine lunch, and then proceeded to business, which lasted until 4 o'clock this morning.

Several other applicants have been elected, and will be initiated at future meetings. It is thought that as soon as the new members are all admitted and the old ones are gathered into the fold the lodge will have a membership of at least sixty.

The next regular meeting will be held on Monday evening, the 25th. The uncertainty of life is well illustrated in the fact that goods were shipped from Santa Monica to Joe Dye on the day he was killed.

J. W. Scott, formerly of Hotel Arcadia, has located himself and family in Los Angeles for the present.

Discouraging on the weather, Judge Twichell, who has been in California for thirty-seven years, says he has never seen two dry days during the first half of the month any more than those we are now experiencing. Continuous good weather scarcely ever began before the 1st of June. In '89 the first "real warm weather" was the 13th of June.

Mr. Wood, who is an attorney, is looking for a place to live. He has been in Los Angeles since he is ahead of anything he has seen.

Ralph Bassett, one of our pioneer townsmen, has returned from a nine months' trip to his former home in Rhode Island. When he left he was almost totally blind; now his sight is partially restored, and his joy at being able to see Santa Monica appeared to be boundless. His friends most heartily rejoice with him.

Mrs. Senator Jones, with characteristic hospitality, was today showing Mrs. Easton and other ladies of San Francisco, who are here in a special, the beauties of Santa Monica and vicinity.

UNIVERSITY PLACE.

UNIVERSITY PLACE, May 20.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Miss Edna Kline entertained a number of her friends by a pleasant party last Friday night, at her residence on Jefferson street, near Wesley avenue. The parlor was fragrant with the perfume of roses, and their arrangement was quite artistic. After refreshments each guest was given a small package containing a paper cap. These caps were of colored tissue paper, grotesque in shape, and served as souvenirs.

Those present were Misses Olive Lapham, E. Ross, Bell, Ada Strong, Jennie Cole, Mignonette Tate, L. Brant, Frances Crooks, Ellen Emery, Maud Woolpert, Minnie Cook, Belle Ross, Edna Kline, Ella Kline, Mrs. Dr. Russell, Mrs. V. C. Vail, E. W. Thurston, R. T. Hall, F. N. Lapham, G. Cook, W. Cooke, H. Beymer and J. R. Ross.

POMONA.

POMONA, May 20.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Immanuel Cotez, one of the very oldest settlers in Pomona Valley died at the home of his son Ramon, near Spadra, this morning, at the age of 87 years. He was a resident of Los Angeles from 1833 to 1842, and was a witness of the occupation of Los Angeles by Gen. Fremont. He was formerly an intimate friend of Gov. Pio Pico, and in early life they engaged together in several business deals.

Mr. Cotez was at one time very wealthy, and his house was known among all the Spanish people in the State and Mexico, for its unusual hospitality. Subsequently, Mr. Cotez lost all his property by an unfortunate investment in gold mines in Lower California and in the loss of over 13,000 sheep by disease and drought in two years. During the last years of his life the old gentleman has remained almost entirely at the home of his son, and has not been a mile from that place in over six years. He retained his faculties until a few days ago. He leaves eleven children, thirty-nine grandchildren and twenty-one great-grandchildren, all of whom reside in Los Angeles and Orange counties. His only bequest was one of $1000 for the use of the Catholic churches in the county. His funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at St. Joseph's Church in Pomona. It is expected that it will be the largest-attended funeral ever known in this valley.

The contest over the selection of a high-license or prohibition member of the Pomona City Council for the first Ward has become even warmer this week, and has now been carried into the courts. William Woody holds the office as Councilman for the first Ward because there was a tie at the late election, and there being no choice, Mr. Woody holds over another term of two years. He is a Prohibitionist, and the high-license believers want another election. Hon. S. M. White will ask the State Council to order a new election, and mandamus upon the City Council to order a new election in the disputed ward, or to show why another election is not to be had. The matter is on the lips of everyone, and in some cases there is much bitterness of feeling and personal animosity.

Mrs. R. F. House is confined to the house by serious illness. Her husband, Rev. G. S. Bailey, is alarmingly ill with a heart difficulty, and his friends believe he will never leave his house again.

Hay cutting is going on all over the valley, notwithstanding the weather is disagreeable. It is seen with a glass.

The marriage engagement of Col. James L. Howland and Miss Lizzie Rosenfeld, both of this place, is announced by the parents of the happy couple.

REDONDO BEACH.

REDONDO, May 19.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Three coaches on the Santa Fé and two on the Redondo came down this morning very well filled with passengers, which is a fair showing for week days.

The weather is a little cloudy, but very pleasant.

Quite a large number of yellow-fin and smelt were caught today with hook and line by persons on the pier.

George Cates is erecting a two-story building, to be used as a livery stable.

William Hulm, Mrs. W. B. Waters and daughter and Mrs. George R. Ross of Chicago are stopping at the Redondo.

The harbor of Redondo and the water far out to sea this morning presented quite a marine appearance. Three vessels were lying around the pier, while four others were seen passing by outside the harbor, among which could plainly be seen the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's handsome passenger steamer, the Corona, on her north-bound trip. F. B. DASHIELL, Manager.

A Wicked but Ingenious Girl.

There have been many extraordinary stories told of the ingenuity of thieves in the pursuit of their nefarious calling, but a case which occurred while I was at Chatham recently beats anything I ever heard of, remarked a newly arrived Englishman.

"A girl was brought before the police court on the charge of robbing milliners' shops. She was only fourteen years of age and of very innocent appearance. What puzzled the magistrate was that none of the witnesses ever saw her take anything, or at least they would not swear to it, although after she had left a shop where she had been articles of value were missed.

"When arrested nothing was found upon her. The magistrate said he could not convict the girl on mere suspicion, and then began to cross examine her himself in a kind, fatherly way, which touched her heart, and she broke down and confessed that she was guilty, and explained her methods, to the astonishment and amazement of the court and spectators.

"It seems that she had a tame white rat, which she carried about with her in a muff. She would enter a shop full of girls and women and ask the price of some article, and while looking at it drop the rodent on the floor.

"Any one could imagine the result. Those near the door dashed into the street, while the employees jumped on the counters and chairs, and screamed like mad, as the prisoner expressed it, amid the laughter of the court, in spite of the assurance that the rat was quite tame.

"In the scuffle she would help herself to what she wanted, catch the rat, put it in her muff, apologize and walk off. The magistrate said that on account of her youth, and as she had voluntarily confessed to the thefts, he would give her one more chance, and bound her over in the sum of fifty pounds to come up for judgment when called for.

"Of course her friends soon entered the required bonds, and Mary Barton tried employing a manager, but found her practice on the weakness of her sex. The time rat dodge won't work in Chatham any more."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

She Looks After the Farm Herself.

Miss Antoinette Knaggs, a young woman with a good collegiate education, owns and manages a farm of 200 acres in Ohio. She says she made money last year and expects to make more this year. "I have tried various ways of farming," she says, "but find I get along best when I manage my farm myself. I tried employing a manager, but found he managed chiefly for himself. Then I went to tenants, and they used up my stock and implements, and the returns were unsatisfactory. So I have taken the management all into my own hands, planting such crops as I think best, and I find that I am a very good farmer, if I do say it myself."—Exchange.

The Boy Didn't Know.

A Springfield man has been so busy making money this week that he didn't see any way but to hire a small boy to go up to his house and perform the necessary operation of breaking the sprouts from about two bushels of potatoes in his cellar. He found the boy and gave him instructions. By some misunderstanding the boy thought sprouting potatoes a very different operation from what it really is, and that man was a very angry owner of spoiled potatoes when he got home that night. He found that the boy had carefully cut each potato into pieces of a size suitable for planting.—Springfield Homestead.

Red Lick, the leading second-hand goods dealer of the city, has established a reputation for fair and honorable business, which only comes to a man who has been long tried and found to be reliable. His large store is a veritable curiosity, where one can obtain "corks, tacks and geometries," or anything else in the wide world that he may need.

Nothing has yet been heard of A. W. Royal, the contractor, who disappeared from his home on Bellevue avenue last Saturday. There are two theories in regard to the matter. One is that he committed suicide, and the other that he has run away. He was defeated in a lawsuit with a man named Dennison, and was disappointed in the judge pretty sharply for some of his testimony. It is claimed that he was threatened with prosecution, and left the country.

H. A. Urub, in attempting to board a cable car on Spring street yesterday afternoon, missed his hold and was thrown violently to the ground, receiving several severe bruises and having his clothing almost torn from his body. Red Lick, the leading second-hand goods dealer of the city, has established a reputation for fair and honorable business, which only comes to a man who has been long tried and found to be reliable. His large store is a veritable curiosity, where one can obtain "corks, tacks and geometries," or anything else in the wide world that he may need.

Nothing has yet been heard of A. W. Royal, the contractor, who disappeared from his home on Bellevue avenue last Saturday. There are two theories in regard to the matter. One is that he committed suicide, and the other that he has run away. He was defeated in a lawsuit with a man named Dennison, and was disappointed in the judge pretty sharply for some of his testimony. It is claimed that he was threatened with prosecution, and left the country.
